1711, Oct. 2. Kings Town. He and thirty-three others, bought 5,800 acres of the vacant lands in Narragansett, ordered sold by the Assembly.
1716, Nov. 23. A deposition was made by John Phillips, of Newport, and Ruth, his wife, that Samuel Langworthy was eldest son of Andrew Langworthy, formerly of Newport, and that Samuel died in Newport, near Turner's Lane, and died at Pettaquamscutt.
He is assumed to have been the father of Ann (who married Joseph Crandall, 1716, Feb. 15), John (who married Mary Lewis, before 1721), Thomas (who married Content Sanford, 1726, Oct. 11), Joseph (who married Elizabeth Burdick, before 1729), Samuel (who married 1736, Aug. 7, Mary Crandall), Robert (who died young), and Mary. These marriages were at Westerly and Stonington. By one account three of the above children (viz: Thomas, Robert and Mary), are called children of Robert Langworthy, but search in the public records reveals no Robert Langworthy of so early a date.

It is assumed that Captain Andrew Langworthy, who died 1776, Apr. 18, aged sixty-three (and who was buried in Newport Cemetery) was his son, and that another son was Lawrence.
