Toward the southern end of Crandall Road, the Carrs once owned a large ract of land. It was sold in 19- after being in the family for well over one hundred years. The first of the Tiverton Carrs to own the land was John, followed by Rodman, then George, then Edwin R., and Wilfred, sons of George. Mrs. Raynor (Carr) Riley is one of the fifth generation of Carr's to have lived on that land.

